

K-Love serves my local community by providing a positive, encourageing, christian radio station. It creates a christian effect. But if this was to be displaced by an LPFM, our community would be devistated. This radio station is positive, encouraging, and christian.